SHARPLINE'S AUTOMOTIVE & SIGN FILM SALES

"Providing excellent service in automotive graphics & striping"

For the convenience of our customers, Sharpline offers several ways to order graphics, roll striping and sign vinyl:

- Via Fax – Customers can fax product orders to Sharpline 24/7 at (316) 721-1535
- Via Voicemail – Customers can leave voice orders after hours by calling (800) 888-4888 and following the prompts
- Via Email – Although Sharpline's website does not provide online ordering, customers can place email orders to us at sales@sharpline.com.

Sharpline graphic consultants are skilled in providing sales and service expertise for all your sign vinyl, striping and graphic needs.

Customers can speak to any of our Automotive graphic consultants during regular business hours (800) 888-4888. Our Automotive team is your direct link to Sharpline. In addition to placing product orders, customers can:

- Inquire about custom-manufactured graphic products
- Get information on new Sharpline products
- Order graphic promotional support materials
- Place orders for non-standard specialty products
- Get answers to your application and/or product performance questions
- Give Sharpline your suggestions/feedback

“NO ONE DELIVERS LIKE SHARPLINE”

Buffy, a Sharpline Automotive Aftermarket Sales Representative, contacts Frank, a Sharpline customer for the last two years, to inform him about the new StreetArt™ sport compact graphics offered by Sharpline. After details of the product are conveyed, Buffy sends the appropriate product literature to Frank so that he can promote the product through his business.

Based on the information and literature Frank got from Buffy, Frank sells a Re-Volt™ kit to one of his customers. Realizing his clients needs, Frank tells him that he can install the graphic the following afternoon. Since Frank's shop is relatively small and the product is new, Frank does not have the part in his inventory. Sound like a problem? Not when you buy from Sharpline!

Frank places a call to Mary, a Sharpline Express Service Representative. Mary informs Frank that the Re-Volt™ is in stock and can ship out that day. Sharpline can ship most UPS and FedEx ground orders “same day” if the order is placed before 12:00 Noon CST, and most 2nd Day or Next Day Air orders “same day” if placed before 4:00 PM CST. Citing his customer's urgency, Frank requests that the order be sent UPS Next Day Air.

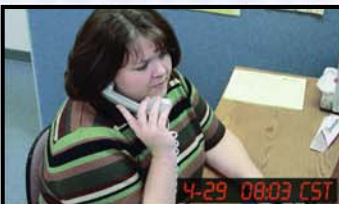

Upon Mary's completion of the order, it is immediately received by Linda, a Sharpline inventory associate, who checks the Re-Volt™ stock location in her computer. Finding the part, she places it into a box for shipping along with additional product literature and a Customer Comment Card. Sharpline carries thousands of products for the Automotive Aftermarket, and rarely has any out of stock.

Larey takes the order and generates all of the relevant shipping documentation to send it out correctly. After the box is sealed and the necessary labels affixed to the side, the order is organized with other shipments to be picked up by George, Sharpline's UPS representative. One of Sharpline's top goals is to send out every possible shipment On Time and Complete, and it regularly does so with almost no exception.

George scans in all of the boxes and places them into his truck to be delivered immediately to the airport. Sharpline ships hundreds of orders a day, every one of them treated as importantly as Frank's.

As requested by the customer, Stacey, a Sharpline Express Service Representative, calls Frank. Stacey gives Frank, who chose to pay for his order C.O.D., his order total, including freight, and also tracks the order with UPS to re-affirm that the shipment will arrive as planned. Customers can pay for their Sharpline orders using open accounts, Visa, MasterCard, C.O.D., or ACH (direct account debit).

Frank receives the order less than 24 hours after he placed it. Amazing? Not to Frank. He knows that he can depend on Sharpline's service and delivery. Frank gives Sharpline his feedback by writing his thoughts down on the Customer Comment Cards he receives with his shipments. Sharpline responds to 100% of its customer comments, for it is our customers that have made Sharpline what it is today.
